A primary goal for this US 219 extension was to promote economic growth and development along this transportation corridor by safely improving southern access to Somerset, Johnstown, and other communities for commerce and visitors. The completion of this highway will generate this growth by retaining and expanding existing industries through efficient access to markets and suppliers.